

Thread color should be a basic shade to match the garment material, but it need not be an exact match.

Thread both needles from left to right.

